

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

- A license management server manages service use licenses so that a necessary number of the service use licenses are used only when they are actually needed.
- 5 A license acquisition request receiving section receives an acquisition request for the license from a service offer service. A license sending section sends the service use license to the service offer service in response to the acquisition request for the license.